Natural Burial Meadow

Leedam

Look out over familiar places

The western meadows are sheltered in woodland. To the east, meanwhile, vistas open towards the Garth Mountain, along the Taff Valley to Castell Coch, St Fagans, Caerphilly Mountain and Craig Llysfaen.

The further east you walk, the more of the city you'll see. Head across to the tall beech trees in the south-eastern high ground and, on a sunny day, you'll catch the light dancing on the surface of the Severn Estuary, the two bridges leading your eyes across to the Mendip Hills of Somerset in the distance.

The beauty of the meadow evolves with the passing seasons. At any time of year, a visit to the burial ground will connect you with nature.

You'll have space to focus. To reflect on life, love, and loss.

How it works

A natural burial is the most ecological funeral option, a thoughtful legacy for future generations. The meadow will remain as it is now, permanent pasture - genuine, farmed countryside.

In advance

- Visit the burial meadow and spend time there getting to know it and deciding whether it's right for you.
- Download an application form from our website, or phone us and we'll send you an information pack.
- Pre-purchase at today's rate. Options available to pay by standing order.

Practicalities

We recommend stout footwear as the ground is uneven. A foldable chair is a good idea for those who find it difficult to stand and remember, there's no such thing as bad weather, just the wrong sort of clothes...

There is a wealth of information about natural burial on our website www.cardiffnaturalburials.co.uk and we are here in the Leedam office to answer your questions - 01600 716438.

When planning a funeral

- Complete an interment form to let us know your plans for the day so that we can help you achieve your wishes.
- Make the arrangements yourself or ask your funeral director to do this for you.
- Book the date and time with us. Burials may take place 10am-1.30pm on weekdays by arrangement.

Our custodian

Our custodian at Cardiff natural burial meadow is Annabelle Traherne. Annabelle and her husband Rhodri own the Traherne estate and take great pride in ensuring that the meadow is maintained to the highest standard at all times.

On the day of a funeral, Annabelle will be there to welcome and look after you.

Please contact the office if you would like to arrange a visit or learn more about having a natural burial at Cardiff. If you prefer to explore the burial meadow independently, please feel free to visit and have a wander around.

More time and space

The natural burial ground in Cardiff is an open meadow, punctuated by mature trees framing scenic views across the Vale.

It is tranquil and private. An unhurried and gentle place to get away from it all. It is somewhere quiet to be with your memories, to take one step at a time, close to nature, whatever the weather, throughout the seasons.

A scenic landscape featuring a green field in the foreground with several sheep grazing. A line of trees, including some evergreens, separates the field from a distant town and hills. The sky is blue with scattered white clouds. The text is overlaid on the right side of the image.

“A sad occasion became full of love, friendship and time for reflection”

Make the day your own

The meadow gives you the freedom to be yourselves. Whether you are planning a simple interment with only a few in attendance or a larger funeral event we will offer inspiration, support and guidance, so you can organise the day exactly as you'd like it.

If it rains, the memorial shelter provides space for gatherings and refuge from the weather.

Flowers

Consider using flowers from your garden, or a friend's, or produce from the veg patch to create a hand-tied bouquet. Ask florists to use these or locally grown flowers. No plastic, Oasis foam or wire, please.

Think about scattering petals from a basket or single stems into the grave.

Personal touches

Choose the best format, music, ceremony and style to suit the person who has died.

You could celebrate with an open-air picnic; wear bright colours or a favourite team's strip; arrive by motorbike or horse and carriage. You have the time and space to do it your way.

Memorial plaques

Oak memorial plaques engraved with names and dates commemorate people buried in the meadow.

The plaques are housed between the upright timbers of the walls of the memorial shelter, located within the top corner of the meadow nearest the entrance.

Rights to display a plaque are granted for a period of 25 years after which they can be renewed.

For when I die...

Message

TIP - Write a message here to the person who reads this document

My full name

My home address

My date of birth

The key person/people to contact in case of my death

They are my... (son, daughter, executor etc)

Their contact details are...

I have made a will, it is kept here¹

TIP - if you haven't, you probably should get a solicitor-written will, a service which is often offered in return for a charitable donation

¹ Edit or delete as necessary

I have a pre-paid funeral plan²

TIP - Don't feel pressured into taking out a pre-paid funeral plan, it can be just as good to keep your money in a savings account, because of the fees charged by the plan provider and commissions paid out to the person who arranged it.

Plan details -

I have set aside money to pay for my funeral
